TO

Amend the Law relating to the Registry of Deeds Office, A.D. 1863.
Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act of the session of the second and third years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intituled "An Act to regulate the Office for registering Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills in Ireland," by section thirty-five of the said Act it is enacted as follows :

"That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand
" eight hundred and thirty-two the said register office shall
" be kept open for business from the hour of ten in the fore-
" noon until the hour of four in the afternoon of every day
10 " in the year, excepting Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good
" Friday, and days of Public Fast or Thanksgiving:"

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said section :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and 15 Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

From and after the passing of this Act the said register office shall be kept open for business from the hour of ten in the forenoon until the hour of four in the afternoon of every day in the year,
20 excepting Saturdays, on which days the office shall be closed at the hour of two in the afternoon; and that the office shall be kept closed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and the two week days next after Christmas Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, and Whitsun Monday, and on days of Public Fast or Thanksgiving.
